

Twenty Two and the Charm of Gravity

And I feel
Rising up
With the day
Duties and claims
That I fear I just don't want to hear

Waiting for me
To get down the floor
Do not have haste
Don't relent to the charm of gravity

Pull the Sun outside
Moon and Stars won't hide
Keep the Sun outside
Resist, once in your life

It's so hard
It's so hard
To face the world
And leave the bed
If the more you try the more you get low

And I feel
Rising up
With the day
Duties and claims
That I fear I just don't want to ... want to...

Pull the Sun outside
Moon and Stars won't hide
Keep the Sun outside
Resist, once in your life
